

DAVIS GENEALOGY CLUB

MAY PROGRAM

“LOCAL ANCESTOR DETECTIVES REVEAL SECRETS”

Family history can be more than finding birth and death dates. Delving into family genealogy and learning about the daily activities and life-styles of our ancestors can require creative ways of researching and interviewing.

Our speakers, Alan Jackman, Nancy Crerar, and Mary Ann Smith, all active family researchers, tell us about finding and interviewing living relatives, using databases to create published genealogy volumes and organizing family reunions and media to share with their families.
