Tips, Tactics and Tools for More Successful Research

Speaker: Linda Lucky of the Regional Family History Center, Sacramento

Join Linda Lucky of the Regional Family History Center, Sacramento, as she shares valuable tips, tactics, and tools for using on-line research and classes to help us improve our family history research results.

Many millions of indexed records are available to the family history researcher on-line, including vital records, baptismal records, military records, and federal censuses--and the databases are continually growing. Classes available through on-line genealogy courses are useful to beginners and experts alike. Using her years of teaching experience, Linda Lucky will outline these important genealogy research tools for discovering our ancestors. Please join us!
